An Introduction to Harriets

Remembering the 'old days' is a favourite pastime in which we all indulge. For many, those days are recreated so eloquently here at Harriets Café Tearooms, where the true quality of service from 'yesteryear' is at the centre of everything.

If its breakfast, lunch or afternoon tea, Harriets has much to offer. All our dishes are made on the premises, many to family recipes, using UK sourced ingredients. Indulge in a fresh cooked breakfast or simply pop in for leaf tea and handmade cakes !

We are fully licensed with outside seating also available in the summer months. Waitresses wear period uniforms and serve you promptly in elegant surroundings. Our tearooms have regular live piano music to accompany you on selected afternoons throughout the year, in addition to welcoming children and having good disabled and pushchair access.

The essence of what has been carefully created in the tearooms is now encapsulated in a private and business buffet service. Exceptional daily platters of sandwiches, cakes and savouries can be pre-ordered for a business lunch, private party, wedding or any other special occasion. If you want your family, friends, clients and customers to know you really do care about quality, then Harriets platters are for you !

Please take time to peruse our menu within which we have taken the opportunity to let you know of other services also available. These include; takeaway sandwiches & drinks, private and business buffets, venue hire, gift vouchers and whole cakes purchased to order.

We hope you enjoy what we believe to be

'A Truly English Experience'

An Ode to Afternoon Tea

*Who wouldn't like to drink afternoon tea
Out in the garden just like me?
With the song of a bird, and the hum of a bee,
And the sunflowers looking all eyes to see.*

*The little girl's stirring her tea so sweet;
Tea in the garden is such a treat,
With the cool breeze blowing and not much heat ~
And doesn't the tea-tray look
Charmingly sweet?*
